

CULTURAL INSTITUTIONS AND GROUPS

The cultural institutions in the region are of local and national importance. The Historical museum and the National archeological reserve of Kabile keep unique objects from more than 7000 settlements and gravestone mounds and 300 prehistoric sites found in the region.

The drama theater “Nevena Kokanova” has 55 years of creative history.

The state puppet theater “George Milev” is a host to the National puppet-theater festival “Mihail Lakatnik”, held every 4 years.

The Ethnographic museum in Elhovo and the ethnographic collections preserve the beauty and the richness of the local way of life.

The art gallery “George Papazov” in Yambol presents works from the most famous Bulgarian artists, the richest collection of decorative works and hundreds of unique icons.

The choir school “Prof. George Dimitrov”, The chamber ensemble “Dianopolis” and the Ensemble for folklore songs and dances “Tundzha” have earned European fame and awards.
