

Consultations that represent a legitimate interest for a person or legal entity regarding the administrative-legal regime, which are performed under the power of legal act or are connected with the issuance of administrative act or performance of other administrative service.